

LOCAL NEWS.

Where there's beauty Holland takes it, Where there's none Holland makes it.

THE pecan crop is reported a big one, from all sections of the country.

THE night Central trains both on the main line and the branch have been resumed.

THE oil mill at Hearne has closed down, owing to the failure of the water supply.

THE farmer who rejoices over dollar wheat does not find much felicitation in five cent cotton.

THESE cool nights and pleasant days beat any weather on earth. Italy is not in it with our sky.

COTTON has not rushed into market this week like it would if the price would jump up a little.

A QUARANTINE against the bill collector would have been welcomed in some quarters yesterday.

THE night trains on the H. & T. C. Ry., were resumed last night for the first time since they were pulled off.

LITTLE CHARLEY LANGE who broke his arm three weeks ago while playing at school is convalescing nicely.

THE Brenham Chautauqua circle will resume work next Wednesday with Mrs. J. S. Giddings leader.

THE knights of the grip who have been tied up in the city the past week, began taking the road again yesterday.

A NEW tin awning is being placed around the Ullman & Lewis building, corner of North and Quitman streets.

EDITOR JOHN G. RANKIN was able to drive down to the BANNER office yesterday afternoon, for the first time since his illness.

THE Klondike liar is taking a rest. He will probably resume business as soon as the yellow fever Ananias subsides.

WEDNESDAY, October 6, will be observed by the Jewish citizens as the Day of Atonement. Their business houses will be closed on that day.

A SERENE mind and a clean body and a healthy stomach and well ventilated rooms and premises in which no filth can accumulate, will prove effectual against all forms of disease.

MR. D. MCGREGOR and daughter, of Brenham, are visiting Mrs. Black and Mrs. Hensley, at Yellow Prairie. Mr. McGregor is nearly one hundred years old.—Caldwell News-Chronicle.

THE fellow who wants work in this locality now can get it. The cotton fields are beckoning him to come, and the owners thereof say come. No trouble to get work, young man. Go right into it young fellow, and make a few dollars of your own.

THE intended revival of Rev. Sid Williams at Giddings, has been postponed, owing to the yellow fever scare, and family sickness. Due notice will be given when he will hold the meeting.

CARDS are out announcing the approaching wedding of Mr. M. F. Armstrong and Miss Dolie Keese, both of Chappell Hill, to take place Wednesday, Oct. 6th. The little village has been disconcerting Brenham lately in the number of matrimonial ships launched.

THERE are no bananas in the local market. The fruit comes direct from New Orleans, and since the quarantine was instituted shipments have ceased, as the ten days quarantine detention ripens it before the local markets are reached.

THE San Antonio Light says: "Captain R. G. Ellis, of the Excelsior Guards, says the colored encampment will be held in Brenham in November. He says the drill committee say they will have the Excelsior Guards there if they have to pay their railroad fare to get them to come."

Behind the Times.

Yesterday's Brenham BANNER comes to our office this week with an article headed "Unjust Quarantines" in which it states that Caldwell and Burleson county are refusing to allow freight from Brenham to be unloaded, and proceeds to kick its hind feet over the dashboard and cut up generally about it.

Now, for the information of our esteemed contemporary, we will state that neither Caldwell nor Burleson county ever inaugurated any quarantine against Brenham. A strict quarantine was declared against all points, whether north, south, east or west, and no favors to anyone. No trains were allowed to stop in this county. However, even all this was called off last Saturday afternoon and now all day trains are stopping just as they have always done.

Brenham seems to have the idea that she is the world, as our quarantine was against the world, and she seems to be the injured party. Wake up, Brother Banner, and don't kick about something that never existed, and which was all over long ago anyway. Keep up with what's going on around you.—Caldwell News-Chronicle.

The article to which the above has reference appeared in the DAILY BANNER of Saturday, September 25th. Our steamed hyphenated neighbor says the Caldwell quarantine was called off last Saturday afternoon. Of course the BANNER doesn't claim credit for the "calling off" process, but simply wants to call attention to a queer coincidence, which is that the "free state" quarantine was modified just a few hours after the BANNER containing the article complained of reached Caldwell. As to "keeping up with what's going on" the BANNER will say that if all its facilities for news gathering were circumscribed by what it finds in the News-Chronicle, it would plead guilty.

No Baptist Conference.

The Baptist State Conference which was to convene in Temple next week, has been postponed indefinitely, by action of the city council. The majority of cities, Brenham included, had already elected and instructed delegates. The following resolutions were adopted by the Temple city fathers:

"Whereas, the present excited condition of the public mind in regard to the yellow fever scare prevailing in our state makes a strict quarantine necessary; therefore, be it resolved by the city council of the city of Temple:

That it would be unwise and unsafe for our citizens to attempt to entertain the Baptist general convention of the state of Texas on October 8, 1897, and we would therefore recommend that the said meeting be deferred; and that we prohibit the convening of the above convention in our city on or about the above date."

AN "overland train" of fifteen wagons, carrying eight families, passed through the city yesterday morning. They are members of a religious sect called Mennonites, and are from both Kansas and Colorado. Their destination is in Harris county a few miles below Houston, where they have secured large tracts of land on which a colony will be founded. Besides the overland party quite a number have passed through the city via the Santa Fe. The Mennonite doctrine is adapted from the Aaa baptists religion, and was first taught by Menn Simons, in Holland in 1536. This religion is similar to the Missionary Baptists, excepting that they are opposed to war, capital punishment and taking oaths, and a belief in baptism by sprinkling instead of immersion. They make good, law abiding citizens and industrious farmers.

BAND of Progress Lodge, No. 1934, Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, will have a torchlight procession tonight. The procession will start from the hall in Camptown and after parading the principal streets, will return to baseball park where the installation of officers will take place.

TWO RUNAWAYS.

Both Occurred on St. Charles Street Friday Afternoon.

Two accidents, both in the nature of runaways occurred on St. Charles street yesterday. A team belonging to Mr. Adolph Gindorf of Gay Hill ran away. After getting under full headway they traversed St. Charles street from Joe Marek's corner to the Central railroad. There they collided with Jake Harris' dray and almost completely demolished it.

Later in the afternoon Mr. J. H. Burch's team ran away at almost identically the same place. A few plunges brought the rearing horses in collision with Joe Marek's buggy, and the last named vehicle will have to go through a severe course of repairs.

BURGLARS invaded the Harrison House Thursday night and touched Henry Pundt, of Williamson county, a Seventh Day Adventist publishing house representative, to the tune of $200 in cold cash and a gold watch. His empty pocket book was thrown into a corner, the thief evidently not needing any receptacle except his pockets to carry the pilfered lucre. No clues have been obtained by the officers as to the burglar's identity.

A RAVING MANIAC.

Mr. Henry Lippe of Prairie Hill, Conveyed to the Austin Asylum.

Mention was made some time ago of the sad mental affliction that had overtaken Mr. Henry Lippe, a well to do farmer who resides on the Independence road near Prairie Hill. His condition has continued to grow worse until it was decided best to have him placed in an asylum, and he was carried to Austin Saturday in charge of Sheriff Teague, assisted by Messrs. C. H. Aerbst and Henry Schulze. The poor fellow was very violent at times. In bringing him to town it was necessary to shackle both his hands and feet, and even at this disadvantage he was by no means easy to handle, and his arms were badly swollen by the handcuffs against which he continuously struggled.

BECAUSE of the quarantine against yellow fever we could not get our patent side from Houston this week and consequently the paper appears half size. We regret this very much as we consider the patent quite an addition to our efforts to give the people a good paper but we think those who understand the situation will excuse us.—Hempstead News.

THE Clarksville Times thinks the "Bovalapus," advertised by the Lemen Bros.' show is probably a cousin of the initiative and referendum.

SELECTING A HUSBAND.

The Sort of Men That Make the Best Ones.

An authority on mankind has given his views on the sort of men that make the best husbands. Among the really nice ones he classes the man who is fond of fishing, the lawyer, and the all-around journalist. He does not enthuse over the popular doctor as a husband, and a musical genius or a man of letters gives him cold chills and shudders. The author, he says, is so fond of his sentences that he is disagreeable when the baby cries and makes himself generally odious about his food, the noise of the children, and any domestic infelicities that may come along. The musician cares for little except his art, and the wife is often secondary to the claims of the prima donna, or the sympathetic creature whose soul is as full of melody as his own.

All in all the good journalist seems to have the most strong points. He is a bit of a philosopher, is likely to be practical, makes the best of what cannot be helped, and is full of alternatives. The lawyer is good to have in the house. He is likely to be alert, a good judge of human nature, a good talker, and quite as fond of listening as of hearing the sound of his own voice. He studies human nature at home as well as abroad, and is altogether a good fellow.

The politician is a diplomat, and while he sometimes leaves all his diplomacy outside of his front door, this is not always the case. The bachelor comes in for a lively scoring, especially the one who claims that he has no small vices. Nature abhors a vacuum, and if there are no small vices, it is pretty safe to say that there may be some large ones that will be pretty difficult to deal with.

There is quite a bit of sound sense in these criticisms, and now it is in order for somebody to tell how a man should select a wife.

After suffering several years with kidney trouble and pain in the back, and trying other remedies, Hall's Great Discovery was the first and only medicine that gave me relief.

Yours &c, W. WILKINS.

SCIENCE has done much to lessen the percentage of death from yellow fever, by improved methods of treatment, but it has not been able to lessen the fright in the vicinity of a case of the disease.

REICHARDT, BECKER & Co., Jobbers.

THE team that collided with Joe Marek's buggy Friday afternoon did not belong to Mr. J. H. Burch, as was erroneously stated in Saturday's BANNER.

Dr. L. D. LE GEAR, veterinary surgeon of Austin, has arrived in town and will remain until October 15th. Anyone wishing any advice on the treatment of their stock can consult Dr. Le Gear by calling on him at L. J. Lockett's Stable.

TRAFFIC has been resumed and instructions given to sell tickets to and between all points on the Houston & Texas Central, with the exception of Brazos county, which is beginning to make itself conspicuous by its rigid adherence to quarantine restrictions.

THE report that a young man from Brenham was made to take the first train out of the city after his arrival last Friday, was a mistake, as the party referred to helped move the Ledger office up to within ten minutes of train time and informed the editor and several other citizens that he would have to leave the train at Gay Hill and go through the country by private conveyance to get back home. He also said there was a suspicious case at Brenham with twenty doctors in attendance.—Lyons Ledger.

THE fact that most farmers in this county are in condition to hold their cotton for better prices is not to be regretted, although the merchants would prefer to see the stuff selling and the farmers buying.

THE American Well Company has completed its contract with the city on the new well, it having attained the required depth of 550 feet. The city has made another contract with the same company which calls for a depth of 800 feet.

THE Columbus (Miss.) Commercial of September the 23rd, contains an extensive notice of the sudden death of Mr. Wm. H. Newlen. Deceased was in his fifty-sixth year, and was a brother of Mrs. Mattie Cline and an uncle of Mrs. Lula Sloan, former residents of Brenham.

DISCONTINUED trains have again resumed business, and a large proportion of public alarm about yellow fever is past and gone.

THOSE towns which hugged the delusion that Brenham was not a cotton market are having their eyes opened to the fact that they were mistaken.

THE farmers are coming to Brenham in gratifying numbers, and no complaints are heard except about the low price of cotton which is not under the control of Brenham buyers. An especially pleasing feature of this revival of trade is the fact that the BANNER's weekly subscription list is growing right along.
